Over 40 Years of Excellence

An American owned and operated company for over 40 years, Faria® is recognised as a world leader in the manufacture of high quality instrumentation. Faria® is a vertically intergrated company with total in-house product design and development, component manufacturing and instrument assembly. Faria® materials, products and procedures are monitored by the widespread use of Statistical Process Control (SPC) to ensure a consistently high standard.

Our dedication to perfection is so effective that we offer an unprecedented Transferable Limited Lifetime Warranty.

Faria® offers unsurpassed styling and design for all applications. We are the primary instrument supplier to the US military and the choice of the world's leading manufacturers.

Faria® instruments are proudly made in the USA to exacting standards. We are dedicated to supplying all of our customers with the highest quality instruments that are the best value offered in the marketplace.
